

ST. IRENAEUS ORTHODOX THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

Presents

the 1st Annual “Feast of the Three Hierarchs” Lecture Featuring

VERY REV. HARRY PAPPAS, PhD

“THE ORTHODOX OLD TESTAMENT CANON AND ITS MEANING FOR 21st CENTURY CHRISTIANS”

Fr. Harry Pappas is Associate Professor of Pastoral Theology at St. Vladimir’s Seminary in Crestwood, New York and pastor of Holy Archangels Greek Orthodox Church in Stamford, CT. In addition to earning his M.Div. from Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, he holds a Th.M. in Old Testament from Harvard and an M.A., M.Phil., and Ph.D. in Old Testament from Yale. He has written articles for journals as well as books on scripture and Old Testament studies. A native of St. Louis, Fr. Harry and his wife, Presvetera Kerry, have three grown children.

Saturday, January 28, 2012

9:30 a.m.— 3:00 pm

St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church,
4967 Forest Park Ave., St. Louis, MO 63108
Free parking in the BJC Hospital Garage next to the church on Forest Park Ave.

Pre-Registration: $12 ($8 for students with ID)
Walk-in Registration: $15 ($10 for students with ID)
To pre-register contact Dr. Michael Tschlis at mtsichlisphd@yahoo.com or for more information call 314-265-1961

PROGRAM SCHEDULE:

9:30-10 a.m. Sign-In

10-11:45 a.m. “It’s Hebrew to Me: Why
Biblical Languages Other Than Greek Matter”

11:45-12:45 p.m. Lunch

12:45-2:30 p.m. “Ancient Wisdom for Modern
Living: How the Old Testament Benefits
Believers Today”

2:30-3:00 p.m. Church Tour